

tec.nicum accredited training courses

CEU polices, procedures & qualifications tec.nicum is accredited by IACET to the ANSI/IACET 2018-1 Standard for Continuing Education and Training (CE/T). This accreditation further supports our commitment to delivering high-quality trainings to our Learners by passing the IACET rigorous accreditation process.

Continuing Education Units (CEU) is a nationally recognized standard which measures the value of content. tec.nicum issues CEU for select trainings. Ten hours of training is equal to 1 CEU.

To receive CEU credit, Learners of tec.nicum training courses must successfully complete all training activities. The trainer will explain how to reach success for the course before the training session begins, which typically requires 100% attendance to the course and successfully passing of course exam. Partial CEUs cannot be given for partial completion of trainings.

A record of CEUs will be kept in tec.nicum's training department for a period of seven (7) years. tec.nicum will only send you a copy of this record with written permission.
